INTRODUCTION

"the Perfect Getaway"

Hoedspruit Wildlife Estate is a beautiful, conserved part of the Lowveld bushveld and the privileged few that own and live here on this exclusive estate enjoy the company of the gentler side of African fauna, impalas and kudu grazing around your house and warthogs snuffling for roots and tubers.

Our beautiful wildlife estate is situated on the edge of the town of Hoedspruit, a small, quaint town with the most amazing view of the Drakensberg mountain escarpment. Whilst Hoedspruit is a small, quiet, secure town, it has all the amenities necessary for a comfortable life in the bush, nothing in town is more than 10 min away from you here in the estate. Many families have been lured from their hectic urban lifestyles to our more tranquil, and beautiful Hoedspruit.

The villa's luxurious finishes, spacious living areas, and stunning outdoor spaces make it the perfect destination for families, groups of friends, or couples seeking a romantic retreat.

The villa boasts three spacious bedrooms, each with its en-suite bathroom. The bedrooms are elegantly decorated with comfortable beds and high-quality linens to ensure a peaceful night's sleep. The bathrooms feature modern amenities and luxurious finishes, adding to the overall feeling of opulence and comfort.
